

Orange British Academy Film Awards Seeks Luxury from Thomas Lyte

Thomas Lyte will be giving nominees for the Orange British Academy Film Awards 2010 (taking place on February 21st) handcrafted Spitfire Leather eyeshades. Since Thomas Lyte's launch in October 2007 Thomas Lyte has been an official gift provider to the Orange British Academy Film Awards nominee goodie bag. This year we be gifting Bafta nominees including Carey Mulligan, Meryl Streep and George Clooney hand crafted Spitfire luxury leather eyeshades.

"Thomas Lyte is dedicated to good taste and craftsmanship. We only use the finest materials resulting in a combination of elegance and utter sophistication. We are delighted to be working once again with Bafta and it is a great honour to have the opportunity to give nominees of the prestigious Orange British Academy Film Awards 2010 a signature, handcrafted piece from the Thomas Lyte collection. We wish all the nominees the best of luck", said, Laura Colonnese Brand Manager of Thomas Lyte.

The Spitfire Eyeshades in Black have been handcrafted in England using the finest and softest Nappa leather. Lined with luxury Black silk featuring the Lyte flower stream, the eyeshades are the ultimate comfort travel accessory. The inside strap has a soft velveteen finish and is embellished with an embossed Bridle Leather tab. Leather eyeshades Retails for £195.00 (ex VAT).

The collection is available via the website www.thomaslyte.com .

For Press Information Contact:

Zeina Dakak @ Finch & Partners on 020 7851 7140 or zeina@finchandpartners.com
Lotte Lugg @ Finch & Partners on 020 7851 7140 or Lotte@finchandpartners.com

For Further Press Details on BAFTA please contact:

Freud Communications: Vicky Grayson on 020 3003 6300.